

Emergency Information

for

Center for Magnetic Resonance Research

Dial 911 for
Police, Fire, and Life Threatening Emergencies

(Meet Responders at Front Door and Communicate Dangers of Facility, Do Not Allow them to Enter a Magnet Room without being Screened and Briefed)

Building: 180	Room:	Department: Radiology	College: Medical School
Address: 2021 6 th St SE Minneapolis, MN 55455

Paging for CMRR Assistance (Emergency Use Only)

Dial: 3-8085 and communicate need for assistance

Medical Emergencies

1. Dial 911
2. Remove subject from scanner and/or magnet room if possible.
 - a. If and Only If emergency involves a ferrous object pinning someone against the magnet; initiate magnet quench
3. Administer CPR if required (AED's located near copier on "classic" side, outside of 7T-AS, in lobby on the "new" side, and on counter in CCIR tech workroom)
4. Meet responding personnel at the front door, escort them to subject, and communicate dangers of facility

Fire

1. Dial 911
2. Remove subject/personnel from scanner and/or magnet room if possible
3. If feasible perform electrical shutdown of magnet
4. If deemed safe/appropriate attempt to extinguish fire using blue and white fire extinguisher ONLY
5. Meet responding personnel at front door and communicate dangers of facility

Important Phone Numbers

Front Desk	6-2001
3.0T-B	6-6481
3.0T-A	5-6762
3.0T-C	6-5798
7.0T/AS	5-7312
7.0T/Terra	1-0341
10.5T	6-4894
1.5T/4.0T	5-8301
9.4T small	5-7521
16.4T	6-7280

Research Safety Officer: Jeramy Kulesa
(phone: 5-8847 or 651-295-6302) Room
1-104

Magnet Safety: Gregor Adriany (phone
5-9385 or 612-702-3529)

University Radiation Protection Officer:
Brian Vetter (phone: 6-5247)

Facilities Management: 4-2900

University Health and Safety: 6-6002